ATF 2026

CONTENT BILLBOARD

Prensario highlights twelve productions, formats and content offerings from the international catalogs presented for ATF 2026

The Master Cutter

Format: Action drama series (approximately 88 × 45 min)
Synopsis: A former Scout Ranger now working as a tracker for hire rescues a mysterious girl and finds himself drawn into a dangerous world of family secrets and organized crime. As he uncovers the truth behind her circumstances, a deadly syndicate threatens everything he loves. The action drama combines a rescue story with revelations about the protagonist's family, placing his skills and personal loyalties at the center of an escalating conflict.
Distributor: GMA Worldwide (Philippines)

GMA Worldwide

Love in the Ashes

Format: Drama series (on air; episode count to be announced)
Synopsis: Leyla disappears just hours before her wedding to Mirza. Seven years later, as he prepares to marry Destan, his seven-month-old nephew Kerem is kidnapped by the boy's father, who is involved in human trafficking. Mirza travels to Aleppo to find the child and discovers that Leyla is still alive. Determined to bring her and six-year-old Hüma safely back to Cappadocia, he returns home to face a conflict within his own family.
Distributor: Calinos Entertainment (Türkiye)

Calinos Entertainment

Duff's Happy Fun Bake Time

Format: Family cooking and science series (6 × 30 min)
Synopsis: Chef Duff Goldman joins a cast of fantastical puppets to explore the science behind food. Through playful experiments, unusual ingredients and practical demonstrations, children and families discover how ingredients work together to create familiar dishes. The series combines comedy, cooking skills and creative recipes, encouraging viewers to experiment in the kitchen and approach everyday food with curiosity and confidence.
Distributor: The Jim Henson Company (United States)

The Jim Henson Company

Olivia's Garden

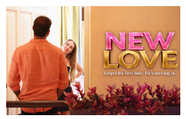
Format: Telenovela (230 × 45 min)
Synopsis: Diana, a young therapist, enters the powerful Walker family's home as a nanny to investigate her mother's death. Her mother once worked for the family, but her death was ruled a suicide and the case closed under unexplained circumstances. While caring for Clemente Walker's daughter, a child on the autism spectrum, Diana grows closer to the household and begins uncovering its darkest secrets. Her search for answers threatens both her safety and the people she loves.
Distributor: NARATIV (United Arab Emirates)

NARATIV

Marusia: Naval Academy

Format: Drama and thriller series (8 × 65 min)
Synopsis: Teresa Ibarra becomes the naval academy's first female director in the aftermath of a cadet's mysterious suicide. An official investigation led by someone from her past forces her to confront secrets that threaten the institution. Meanwhile, a new generation of cadets faces demanding training and strict discipline. Friendships, romances and shifting loyalties shape their search for identity in a world where tradition, sacrifice and duty govern everyday life.
Distributor: Mediterraneo Mediaset (Spain)

Mediterraneo Mediaset



New Love

Format: Dating reality format
Synopsis: Four successful single women decide to abandon the patterns they believe have kept them from finding a partner. Instead of swiping through dating apps or going on casual first dates, each moves in with a carefully selected stranger for 72 hours. At the end of that period, they must decide whether their connection is strong enough to continue living together for another three days or whether to say goodbye and begin again with someone new.
Distributor: Dori Media (Israel)

Dori Media

The Substitute

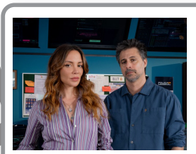
Format: Scripted thriller series
Synopsis: Kang Geon-tae is a top-ranked scholarship student from a low-income background whose academic results could determine his future. Blackmailed into taking South Korea's university entrance examination for someone else, he is pushed into a dangerous series of decisions that stretches from the application process to the exam and essay tests. Cheating, betrayal and impossible choices place his score and prospects at risk as the pressure surrounding the scheme intensifies.
Distributor: CJ ENM (South Korea)

CJ ENM

Raaya: The Great Indian Tales

Format: Children's animation
Synopsis: Raaya is a curious young girl whose adventures introduce children to stories from India's cultural heritage. Built around an emotional connection with its central character, the series encourages young viewers to ask questions and discover the narratives and traditions that connect them with their roots. The first season, The Great Indian Tales, brings cultural storytelling to a children's animation format designed to make that heritage accessible and engaging.
Distributor: One Life Studios (India)

One Life Studios



Amazing Dinoworld III

Format: Science and natural history documentary (2 × 49 min; in production)
Synopsis: The third installment of Amazing Dinoworld explores how Tyrannosaurus and Triceratops became dominant dinosaurs in prehistoric North America. Combining immersive CGI with new paleontological research, the series traces their evolutionary journey from Asia to a new continent. Access to newly discovered fossils, including the Dueling Dinosaurs and a Triceratops that survived a near-fatal injury, provides fresh evidence about how these animals lived and adapted.
Distributor: NHK Enterprises (Japan)

NHK Enterprises

The Forgetting

Format: Crime miniseries and psychological drama (6 × 45 min)
Synopsis: Police officer Pia Kraus investigates the murder of her teenage niece while experiencing the first symptoms of early-onset Alzheimer's disease. As her memory begins to deteriorate, the very tool she needs to reconstruct the crime becomes increasingly unreliable. The investigation develops alongside a personal struggle with uncertainty and loss, combining criminal suspense with an intimate drama about family, identity and the fragility of the memories on which we depend.
Distributor: ORF-Enterprise (Austria)

ORF-Enterprise

Ben-Hur

Format: Epic historical drama (50 × 45 min)
Synopsis: Judah Ben-Hur, heir to a powerful Jewish family, forms a friendship with the Roman Messala despite their cultural and religious differences. Years later, betrayal strips Judah of his family, fortune and freedom, setting him on a journey shaped by suffering and the desire for revenge. Based on Lew Wallace's novel, the series moves through Jerusalem, Rome and Antioch, combining romance, political conflict and chariot racing in a story about justice, faith and redemption.
Distributor: Seriella Productions (Brazil)

Seriella Productions

Clip-led series

Format: Customizable factual and entertainment series and specials
Synopsis: Newsflare offers licensed real-life footage for producers building complete series, regional specials or FAST programming. Its library supports themes including roads and dashcams, extreme weather, animals, caught-on-camera mysteries, feel-good moments and fails. Producers can select clips for their target market and combine them with their own narration, graphics and branding. Episode counts, running times and regional focus are developed around the brief, with footage licensed for the agreed territories and platforms.
Distributor: Newsflare (United Kingdom)

Newsflare