Our story starts with a family struggling to survive in one of the poorest districts of town. The eldest child of that family, Filiz, has become like a mother for her siblings.

Filiz, who has been looking after her five younger siblings ever since their mother abandoned them, takes care of her family, despite their alcoholic father Fikri and she hangs on to life without complaining. Like Filiz, her siblings are strong-willed, eclectic, proud children, who have learned to look after themselves, without succumbing to despair. Filiz is followed by Rahmet, who is intellectually gifted, his junior Hikmet is stuck in a difficult love predicament, his junior Kiraz is a conscientious and emotional girl, her junior is Fikret, who is always in trouble at school, and the youngest one is 1.5 years old İsmet.

Filiz is a young girl who has dedicated her life to her siblings; her confidant is her best friend and neighbor Tülay. She tries to earn money from daily jobs and deals, having to deal with a lot more responsibilities than what is typical for a girl her age, until one day, the handsome and charismatic Barış enters her life. This mysterious young man appears out of the blue and does his best to win Filiz's affection and become a part of the family. Barış falls in love with Filiz at first sight and tries to impress her, whereas Filiz thinks that there is no place for love in her life and she tries to ignore her feelings towards Barış. The police officer Cengiz, who has been in love with Filiz for years and his protective behavior makes matters even harder for Barış. Furthermore, Barış's hidden identity and mysterious life poses a threat to their relationship. Six siblings try to hang on to each other and find happiness despite their father Fikri, who is only interested in having something to drink and earning easy money, however, Barış's love for Filiz will set everybody on different paths.
