SYNOPSIS: Amelia Hart has the perfect life: a successful floristry in Chicago and a boyfriend who is definitely about to propose. When her soon-to-be-married little sister and fiancé become marooned at a mountain retreat days before their wedding in Primrose River, Australia, Amelia and the Best Man, Grayson Tanner, are tasked with stepping in to save the wedding. Despite getting off on the wrong foot, Amelia and Grayson prove to be a dynamic team. With the help of Mr. & Mrs. Poppy, the owners of the Hummingbird Inn, Amelia & Grayson prepare for a beautiful wedding in Mr. Poppy's decadent gardens.

As they approach the big day, Amelia realizes her life back in the city isn't as perfect as she once thought, and begins to see more color and life in the small country town and its people than in her favorite bustling city. The longer she spends in Primrose River, and with Grayson, the more she questions where she really belongs.
