

Something Special

Something Special Inc.

Website. www.sspecial.co.kr

Add. A-1705 Bldg., Yangcheon-ro 583, Gangseo-gu, Seoul, Korea

Tel. +82 (0)2 2093 7462 / E-mail. sspecial@sspecial.co.kr

SOMETHING SPECIAL is Korea's first-ever TV format agency focused on creative talents, specializing in content development, production, and distribution for the global market.

Something Special is established with the objective of becoming the hub for creative content as the members of Something Special are already the leading experts in international cooperation with the highest capability in content development. The mission laid out by President Jinwoo Hwang, the legendary figure in K-Contents history proves their expertise in the field by developing over 150 format titles, and producing over 26 territories.

The numbers keep growing, and it will continue to grow. Something Special's determination to create and provide people-centric content will not rest easy, since the genuine love for the content resembles the impeccable growth of the company.

Seeking : Studios, Broadcasters, Production Company, Network, Acquisition Personnel, Producer & Creatives

My Ex's Secret Recipe

Production Year _ Paper Format
Genre _ Reality Dating + Cooking

In this bittersweet series, singles will be reunited with their exes, to see if they have unresolved feelings left for each other- cooking the unforgettable dish, one used to make for another.

The couple will spend some time in a specially designed kitchen facing their exes looking for some answers whether it's the recipe or their relationship.

And at the end of the show, they will choose whether they want to give it another try or end the relationship for good. Whatever their choices may be - at least, we all will end up with some great recipes.