Title: Who's My Chef

Genre: Food Game Show

Duration: 60 min

Synopsis:

A new aspect of food game show, Who Is My Chef? invites celebrity guests to taste food cooked by total strangers, without knowing whether they can cook or not. But the celebrity guests can use their detective skills to question the "chefs" and inspect their knowledge of food and cooking, before judging whether they are a real chef or not.

But the decision has to be quick! Because the seats at each chef's table are LIMITED! Reserve the table you want before someone else does. If you pick THE RIGHT TABLE, you'll get to taste a yummy dish. But if you pick THE WRONG ONE, you'll only know once you taste it.

But remember our rule... Don't judge a dish by its look!
