NEW SEASON

Record-breaking launch of series 4 in France!

Street Football

Friendship, respect, solidarity!

Entries for the qualifiers for the next Street Football world cup are open, and 10 year old Little Dragon dreams of taking part. But nobody takes him seriously or wants him on their team... "you're too young", "you're too small". So Little Dragon forms his own team - The Blues.

With Bianca, Assaad, Kani and Frank, Little Dragon will be playing against 20 other teams in a fierce competition.

Among them will be FC Golmetti led by his best friend Jeremy, The Psychopaths who play like their name, and Double X, a team of girls intent on proving that girls are better than boys.

But The Blues are determined to win and prove to the world that size and age won't stop them. All that matters is the spirit of Street Football: friendship, respect, solidarity!
