The story of Zeynep, an innocent girl, begins with the loss of her mother, Cemre, in a tragic car accident. Zeynep was born with a dangerous heart defect and no one wants to upset her with the truth. Instead her father tells her that her mother is away on a business trip. Soon after her death, lies start to spread about Cemre. Her husband Murat who used to love her madly, now hates her deeply. That opens the door for Murat's mother Asude, to arrange his marriage to Melek, the woman she'd like to see as her daughter-in-law. Eventually Zeynep hears that her mother is dead and she has an attack. But when Zeynep's heart is about to give up, a miracle happens; Zeynep sees Nazli, a woman who looks exactly like her mother. As Zeynep embraces her mom's lookalike, her health condition becomes stable. With his daughter's life on the line, Murat offers this lookalike an unconventional deal. Nazli agrees to become his daughter's surrogate mother until Zeynep is strong enough for a life-saving surgery. What no one realizes is that Cemre and Nazli were actually twin sisters separated at birth and it was no coincidence that brought Nazli here, to her dead sister's home...
